Many thanks to Girl Scout Troop 29 for decorating the library's Christmas tree with their own handcrafted ornaments. This is their Christmas gift to us and rest of the community, so come in and join us sometime during the holiday season, see our tree, and view the antique toy display.

The girls in Troop 29 earned the money for the materials that were used in making the ornaments, and the tree was donated by the Historical Society.

Library hours are: Monday 2-8; Wednesday 10-8; Friday 2-8; and Saturday 1-5.

Mattapoisett Assessors laid a stack of computer read-out paper more than a foot high on the Selectmen's table to illustrate the mess of work which has developed from the attempt to transfer their records from their books to computer tape. Bruce Rocha explained that this paper is the result of 3 or 4 different programmings of the Old Colony computer, all of which have to be proofread by his office staff to locate mistakes which are

"red lines" and reprogrammed for correction. Assessor Rocha told Selectmen that in the time which has been spent proofreading and correcting the tax bill could have been prepared and mailed by his office on time. Rocha said that the stack of read-outs was produced by Old Colony students under an instructor's guidance and after 3 or 4 correction programmings is still riddled with errors. He said that a student of the instructor responsible for this had been sent to the Town Hall to teach the personnel there how to program. He said that Assessors have no confidence in this method. Rocha said that the tax records of the town are too vitally important to be entrusted to amateur programming. He said that the Assessors' records represent a $1,300,000 business and that the town simply cannot afford not to hire a competent expert who has the experience to do the job properly. Rocha said that the taxpayers are not happy with the late tax bills and the assessors are not happy either with the late tax bills or with the comments of the unhappy taxpayers. He said that it is the assessors' responsibility to produce the tax bills accurately and on time.

Robert Fay, a consultant who advises and works with the computer section of Old Colony, explained that Executive Secretary Steven Lombard initiated the original concept where the Old Colony student would program the tax bills on a modified plan used in Falmouth. He said that Mr. Lombard had made a decision to do the payroll first. Town Accountant Barbara Dakin asked Mr. Fay how the payroll programming was proceeding and he replied that it was half completed.

Selectmen Chairman William Hubbard said that he agreed with Selectman Huntoon's opinion that a coordinator was missing since Mr. Lombard, who had long experience in finance, had left. He said that the school

Rocha said that assessors still had concerns about security of their records. Fay assured him that both an account number and a code word was necessary to gain access to the computer tape of the records and that security at the school is present 24 hours a day. He said that a duplicate tape of the final correction program should be made and kept at a separate location.

Selectmen agree that an effort should be started immediately to locate a competent computer programmer to convert the assessors' records to computer tape and to

Rocha said a further concern of the assessors is the changeover of computer systems at Old Colony which will necessitate a complete reprogramming next year to adapt the assessors' records to the new computer which is due to be installed.

VOTE TO SAVE ON TOWN REPORTS AND WARRANTS

Executive Secretary Carol Adams reported that she had contacted all bidders on the annual reports and warrants and requested quotes on "camera ready" copy to be prepared in the Town Hall by the various departments on the IBM Selectric typewriters available. OPINION FROM TOWN COUNSEL

An opinion was received from Town Counsel Donald Fleming as to whether members of the County Budget Advisory Board might be personally liable in the event that some injury was suffered by an individual as a result of said budget cut. Mr. Fleming's opinion is that the individual Selectmen would have no liability when acting in good faith as public officials.

SIGNS ON I-195

A letter was received from Alexander Zaleski, Executive Director of SRPEDD, requesting that the Selectmen support a recommendation that signs be placed on I-195 informing motorists of the State operated "Park and Ride" lot on North Street.

TEMPORARY TAX COLLECTOR

Selectmen received a notice from the Department of Revenue that Kathleen F. Briggs has been bonded as Temporary Tax Collector.

UPGRADE OF ALL VALUATIONS

A copy was received from the Department of Revenue addressed to the Board of Assessors informing them that an upgrade of all valuations must be conducted again to keep full value. A timetable was enclosed advising the Assessors of various functions that must be complied with by June of '82.

We think that we have planned some interesting trips for January. By special request (or suggestion) we have planned a trip Tuesday, January 5th, to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts while the much heralded "Search for Alexander" exhibition is still there in the Museum's New West Wing. Alexander played a tremendous role in Greek History, not only as one of truly great military leaders while the Northern Greek Province of Macedonia dominated that ancient world, but also as a leader in a period of great artistic achievement in superb metalwork, sculpture, and jewelry. Our admission price includes a recorded tape explanation of the exhibition.

The Ice Capades trip we publicized last week in Presto. Those who went last year thoroughly enjoyed the show. Get your reservations and money in as soon as possible.

Another new and special trip is scheduled for Tuesday, January 12th. Joe Rochette will conduct a trip to Worcester where we will have a guided tour of the famous old Mechanics Hall Building which has been restored at a cost of over two million dollars. It was built in the middle of the 19th

How To Lighten Holiday Foods

Start with a bowl of relishes—the greater the variety, the better. Skip the dip.

Make the cream sauce for onions with half as much fat and with skim milk instead of whole. Thicken with corn starch.

Serve baked sweet potatoes rather than candied sweets, or skip the marshmallows.

For pie, choose pumpkin chiffon over creamy pumpkin or make a mincemeat pie that's more apples than mincemeat.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

ORR Junior High

SPEECH THERAPIST GUEST SPEAKER

Mr. John Johnson, speech therapist for the District schools, was recently a guest speaker at the Old Rochester Regional Junior High School. Because the Team 7 East students have recently been reading about Helen Keller, they had many questions about how deaf people are taught to speak. Mr. Johnson addressed these concerns and also discussed with the students other situations; such as strokes, which can result in the loss of speech. As a part of his presentation, Mr. Johnson showed a movie entitled "Breaking the Sound Barrier".

Joining 7 East students were other students associated with Project Uplift.

AGAINST THE CURSE OF SOCIALISM

Editorial, D.C.J.

In this season devoted to Peace on Earth Good Will to Men it is striking contrast to observe the events in Poland where men and women have no peace because they are slaves to a government which is dedicated to breaking them ruthlessly. The bravery of these people in their effort to win escape from hopeless existence is in marked contrast to those who live in freedom in the west and rush pell-mell toward socialism as a cure-all for all problems. As our hearts go out to these Polish people, who have suffered for generations under a hell of oppression with no hope of improvement, no hope of enough to eat, penned in their borders like cattle with little hope of escape, we can be sure that they know the value of freedom because for them it is unattainable.

For us, freedom is so commonplace that some can't wait to exchange it for the "security" that the prophets of socialism offer in its place. We blind ourselves to the fact that government has nothing that it doesn't take from its subjects. We refuse to see that the walls of the socialist countries are built to prevent the escape of the people who are existing "secure" under government control. No one has ever tried to escape to a socialist country but the Ambassador to Poland asks for asylum in the west because he knows the value of freedom far better than we do. Who knows how many million would follow if they could?

Khrushchev said to Nixon in the kitchen debate in Moscow "Your grandchildren will live under socialism." What a crude shrewd peasant this man was. He saw from afar a trend which we are too close to see under our nose.

The end result is on display now in Poland and the best and the bravest will disappear and the rest will work hopelessly under a greater oppression than they have ever known. But they will remember that they saw a glimmer of freedom in a ray which pierced the iron wall of their great prison country. They will know the pride that brave men know when they take on hopeless odds to follow an ideal.

This year the J/24 World Championships while being held in Sydney, Australia will consist of six races on the Olympic circle and one distance race of about twenty-five miles. The sailing conditions in Sydney are normally very windy with large seas.

Wakeman commented that "We will be sailing against the best from nearly thirteen different countries. The United States will be represented by seven boats."

All of us from the Tabor Academy community and the town wish Mr. Wakeman and his crew the very best.

FREE COFFEE FOR HOLIDAY DRIVERS

The Massachusetts Turnpike Authority has announced to motorists that free coffee will be served at restaurants on the turnpike over Christmas and New Year Holiday weekends.

Chairman John T. Driscoll said, "Howard Johnson Company, operators of the restaurants along the 135 mile super highway, would provide free coffee to promote safe driving".

The gesture is intended to remind motorists that rest stops and coffee stops can help keep drivers alert, thereby improving driving performance. All too often motorists in

So, this year shop for live wreaths without berries. Don't rely on your merchant to know which berries are lethal. No decoration is worth risking your child's life.

Also, forego mistletoe and poinsettias. They're poisonous, too. Opt for bright red ribbon instead or buy artifical decorations, which will last from year to year, cost less and are flame retardant.

Brandt Island Anthem

The following is but a portion of a multi-stanza-epic entitled Anthem of Brandt Island, dated 1899. While some of us may think our turn of the century ancestors were a staid group, these summer colonists obviously knew why that era was called the "Gay Nineties".

Our thanks to Priscilla Hathaway and the Historical Society for sharing the anthem. Sing it to "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight".

Now we're gathered all together for our annual Clambake,
Never mind what wind or weather, let us all our troubles shake.
Then fill up your glass, each lad and lass, and let's right merry be
For on this Isle we're not for style but for real jollity.
Chorus
Then laugh and quaff and pass the grog around,

It's growing hotter on this Isle to-day.
Fill 'er up, here's to the N.G. of N.Y.
The next time they are called the Seventh boys may try,
To find some new excuse, but that's no reason why
It's so firey on Brandt Isle to-day.

Here's to part of the contingent that hail from old Bergen Point;
That's in a foreign country, it's a funny kind of joint,
It's full of mosquitoes and malaria and the Knickerbocker Club
And is the home of some good people who consider it the hub.

Chorus

Now hoot and howl and let her go for fair;
There's no one 'round so what need we 'uns care.
We have had our fill and there is plenty more to spare--
She's a boiling on this Isle to-day
Fill our glasses chock full to the brim,
Richie's getting fozzled, Oh! just get on to him.
But Dick, my boy, you're not alone, there are others in the swim,
And it's sizzling on Brandt Isle to-day.

Chorus

How sad it is when you have to leave, and to wifey say Good-bye
And you pat her on the shoulder and say, "Darling do not cry."
Then you step upon the quarter deck of Al Booth's yacht Scionda
And you start for old New Bedford [illegible] yonder.
But sometimes fate is cruel on your trip--
Past Black Can buoy you unknowingly will slip.
And on the course of course you've lost your grip,

THE JOY OF BELLS AT CHRISTMAS

Thousands of Americans across the nation will welcome the Christmas season with melodious songs of joy created by choirs of handbell ringers.

Bells have long been a symbol heralding the Yuletide - the sidewalk Santas and the chiming in church steeples. Although certainly not new, the popularity of handbell choirs has enjoyed an unprecedented growth in less than three decades.

These groups even have their own organization, known as the American Guild of English Handbell Ringers (AGEHR). In existence only since 1954, it's dedicated to promoting the art of handbell ringing.

The initial organization numbered only 46 member choirs. Today, it has grown to 4,200 representing about 75,000 choir members throughout the United States.

The people at Schulmerich Carillons, the Sellersville, Pa. based-firm that is the largest bell manufacturer in the world, estimate that there is probably an additional 150,000 handbell ringers in the
